CONFRICATION

Meaning: Confrication: the act of revealing or exposing something hidden, often leading to significant insights or changes.

1. The sudden confrication of the ancient manuscript revealed secrets long buried in history.
2. In her speech, she addressed the confrication of values that had once united the community.
3. The scientist's research focused on the confrication of various ecosystems due to climate change.
4. His novel explores the confrication of personal identity amidst societal expectations.
5. The artist's work often reflects the confrication of tradition and modernity in contemporary life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confrication