

CONFUSABLE

Meaning: Confusable refers to words or terms that are easily mistaken for one another due to their similarity in appearance, sound, or meaning, often resulting in errors.

1. The two words are often confusable, leading to frequent errors in writing.
2. In the world of linguistics, homophones can be particularly confusable for learners.
3. When teaching vocabulary, it's important to highlight terms that are easily confusable.
4. Many students find certain mathematical concepts confusable, creating challenges in understanding.
5. The instructions were so vague that they became confusable, leaving everyone perplexed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confusable>