

CONFUTATION

Meaning: Confutation: the act of disproving or refuting an argument or theory through evidence or reasoning.

1. The lawyer presented a compelling confutation of the opposing argument.
2. After thorough research, the scientist's confutation of the outdated theory gained widespread attention.
3. In his debate, he skillfully used confutation to dismantle his opponent's claims.
4. The article provided a detailed confutation that challenged the misconceptions about climate change.
5. Her confutation of the rumors not only cleared her name but also restored her reputation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confutation>