

CONGELATION

Meaning: Congelation is the process of solidification from a liquid state, often resulting in the formation of ice.

1. The congelation of the lake's surface created a beautiful scene of glistening ice.
2. In chemistry, congelation refers to the process of solidification from a liquid state.
3. The artist captured the moment of congelation in his painting, showcasing the stillness of winter.
4. As temperatures dropped, the rapid congelation of the puddles surprised many commuters.
5. Scientists studied the congelation of various substances to better understand their freezing points.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/congelation>