

CONGLOBATION

Meaning: Conglobation refers to the process of forming a rounded mass or aggregate, particularly in the context of particles or molecules coming together.

1. The scientist studied the process of conglobation in the formation of complex molecules.
2. After hours of observation, the team noted a peculiar conglobation of the particles under the microscope.
3. The artist's unique style often reflected a conglobation of various cultural influences and techniques.
4. In biology, conglobation can refer to the clustering of cells into a cohesive mass.
5. The conglobation of ideas at the conference sparked numerous innovative discussions among the participants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conglobation>