

CONGLUTINATION

Meaning: Conglutination refers to the process of combining or uniting different elements or substances into a cohesive whole.

1. The conglutination of various cultures has enriched the city's vibrant atmosphere.
2. Scientists studied the conglutination of proteins to understand the disease's progression.
3. The artist's work exemplifies the conglutination of different artistic styles into a cohesive masterpiece.
4. In the laboratory, the conglutination of the substances resulted in an unexpected reaction.
5. The documentary explored the conglutination of historical events that shaped modern society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conglutination>