

CONJOINTLY

Meaning: Conjointly means in conjunction or together with others in a collaborative manner.

1. The two researchers worked conjointly to produce a groundbreaking study.
2. The committee will meet conjointly with stakeholders to discuss the new policy.
3. The organizations decided to market their products conjointly to maximize their reach.
4. The dancers moved conjointly, creating a stunning visual harmony on stage.
5. The project was completed conjointly, showcasing the strengths of both teams involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conjointly>