

CONJUBILANT

Meaning: Conjubilant (adjective): expressing great joy and celebration, often in a communal or exuberant manner.

1. The team was conjubilant after their unexpected victory in the championship.
2. As the confetti fell, the crowd erupted into a conjubilant celebration.
3. The conjubilant atmosphere at the festival drew people from all around the city.
4. She felt conjubilant as she reunited with her long-lost friends at the reunion.
5. Their conjubilant laughter filled the air, creating an infectious sense of joy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conjubilant>