

CONJUNCTIVENESS

Meaning: Conjunctiveness refers to the quality of being linked or connected, particularly in the context of ideas or linguistic elements that promote collaboration or coherence.

1. The conjunctiveness of their ideas fostered a collaborative environment.
2. In linguistics, conjunctiveness often refers to the way phrases are linked within a sentence.
3. The teacher emphasized the conjunctiveness of the themes in their projects during the presentation.
4. Understanding the conjunctiveness of various elements can enhance the clarity of the argument.
5. The conjunctiveness between the two theories offered a fresh perspective on the issue at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conjunctiveness>