

CONJURING

Meaning: Conjuring refers to the act of summoning or bringing something into existence, often through magical or imaginative means.

1. The magician's conjuring left the audience in awe as he made a rabbit appear from thin air.
2. In her dream, she found herself conjuring images of a world where anything was possible.
3. The ancient book was said to hold secrets for conjuring powerful spirits from beyond.
4. His talent for conjuring vivid stories captivated listeners, transporting them to faraway lands.
5. She felt a rush of nostalgia while conjuring memories of her childhood summers by the sea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conjuring>