

CONNIVENT

Meaning: Connivent: characterized by a willingness to overlook or ignore wrongdoing, often for personal gain or complicity.

1. The connivent nature of the two officials allowed the corruption to thrive unchecked.
2. Her connivent smile hinted that she was in on the secret plan all along.
3. Despite his claims of innocence, many believed he had a connivent relationship with the criminals.
4. The connivent agreement between the rival companies stifled competition in the market.
5. In a connivent move, they decided to overlook the violations to maintain their friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/connivent>