

CONNOTATIVE

Meaning: Connotative refers to the implied or associated meanings and emotions that a word evokes beyond its literal definition.

1. The word "home" has a connotative meaning that evokes feelings of warmth and safety.
2. In literature, authors often use connotative language to evoke deeper emotional responses from readers.
3. The connotative aspect of the term "youthful" can imply vibrancy and energy beyond just age.
4. When analyzing poetry, it is crucial to consider the connotative meanings of words to fully appreciate the theme.
5. Her choice of the word "slim" instead of "skinny" carries a more positive connotative implication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/connotative>