

CONQUER

Meaning: To conquer means to overcome or defeat something challenging, such as fears or competitors, through determination and effort.

1. To conquer your fears, you must first confront them head-on.
2. The team's determination to conquer the championship was evident in their practice sessions.
3. She aimed to conquer the challenge of climbing the mountain despite her previous setbacks.
4. History tells us that many empires sought to conquer new territories in their quest for power.
5. In order to conquer the complexities of the language, he dedicated hours to studying every day.
6. To conquer your fears, you must first face them head-on.
7. The team worked tirelessly to conquer the challenges posed by the unexpected storm.
8. She believed that love could conquer all obstacles in their relationship.
9. History tells us that great leaders often rise to conquer not just lands, but minds as well.
10. It took years of dedication and practice for him to conquer the art of public speaking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conquer>