

CONSECRATORY

Meaning: Consecratory refers to actions or rituals that are intended to dedicate or make something sacred, often associated with religious or spiritual significance.

1. The consecratory rituals in the ancient temple were filled with reverence and solemnity.
2. In her speech, she described the consecratory act as a vital part of their spiritual journey.
3. The consecratory elements of the ceremony provided a deep sense of connection to the divine.
4. He felt a profound sense of peace during the consecratory moments of the service.
5. The artist's work had a consecratory quality, evoking a sense of sacredness in the viewer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consecratory>