

CONSENTING

Meaning: CONSENTING: agreeing or giving permission to something, especially after being informed of the relevant details or terms.

1. The couple was happy to sign the agreement, consenting to the terms laid out by the organization.
2. Informed consent is crucial in medical procedures to ensure that patients are consenting fully to the risks involved.
3. The children were consenting to participate in the study after their parents provided permission.
4. It is important to have clear communication when consenting to any form of partnership or collaboration.
5. The law requires that both parties are consenting adults before entering into any binding contract.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consenting>