

CONSIGNER

Meaning: Consigner: a person or entity that sends goods to another party for sale or shipment.

1. The consignor decided to use a reputable shipping company for the delicate artwork.
2. After much negotiation, the consignor agreed to lower the shipping fees for the rare antiques.
3. In the world of logistics, the consignor plays a crucial role in ensuring that goods are properly documented.
4. The consignor's signature was required on the shipping label before the package could be sent.
5. Understanding the responsibilities of a consignor can help avoid misunderstandings during the shipping process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consigner>