

CONSIGNIFICANT

Meaning: Consignificant: having a significant relationship or correlation with something else in a particular context.

1. The researchers found the results to be consignificant, indicating a strong correlation between the variables studied.
2. In the context of this project, the consignment of resources was consigned to aid the local community.
3. The consignment of valuable artwork was carefully monitored to ensure its safety during transit.
4. Her analysis highlighted several consignificant factors that contributed to the unexpected outcome.
5. Understanding the consignment process is essential for ensuring efficient logistics in any supply chain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consignificant>