

CONSIGNOR

Meaning: Consignor: a person or entity that sends goods to another party, typically for transportation or sale.

1. The consignor arranged for the shipment to be picked up at their warehouse.
2. In the logistics industry, the consignor is responsible for ensuring that the goods are properly packaged.
3. Before the delivery can proceed, the courier must obtain a signature from the consignor.
4. The consignor provided all necessary documentation to facilitate the customs clearance process.
5. Understanding the rights and responsibilities of a consignor is crucial for smooth transportation of goods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consignor>