

CONSOCIATION

Meaning: Consociation refers to a cooperative relationship or alliance among diverse groups or communities, particularly in a political context, aimed at fostering collaboration and effective problem-solving.

1. Consociation among diverse groups can lead to more effective problem-solving.
2. The political theory of consociation emphasizes collaboration in a pluralistic society.
3. In his speech, he advocated for consociation as a means to achieve lasting peace.
4. The consociation model has been successfully implemented in various multicultural nations.
5. Through consociation, communities can foster understanding and respect among differing cultures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consociation>