

CONSONANTNESS

Meaning: Consonantness refers to the quality or characteristic of a speech sound that is articulated with constriction or closure in the vocal tract, distinguishing it from vowel sounds.

1. The consonantness of the word can greatly affect its overall pronunciation.
2. In linguistics, consonantness is often examined in relation to vowel sounds.
3. A strong focus on consonantness can enhance the clarity of spoken language.
4. The poet played with consonantness to create a unique rhythm in her verses.
5. Teachers often emphasize consonantness when instructing students on phonetics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consonantness>