CONSPERSION

Meaning: Conspersion is the act of spreading false accusations or defamatory statements about someone to damage their reputation.

1. The politician faced accusations of conspersion as rumors about his past began to circulate.

2. In her attempt to undermine her rival, she resorted to conspersion, spreading false claims to tarnish his reputation.

3. The artist's work was subjected to conspersion, with critics questioning the originality of her ideas.

4. Despite the conspersion aimed at him, he maintained his composure and continued to advocate for his cause.

5. Conspersion often emerges in competitive environments, where individuals feel threatened by the success of others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conspersion