

CONSPIRINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that suggests secretive planning or collaboration, often for a deceitful or mischievous purpose.

1. The two friends exchanged glances, conspiringly planning their surprise party for the weekend.
2. He spoke in a conspiringly hushed tone, as if revealing secrets meant for only their ears.
3. In the shadowy corners of the café, they huddled together, conspiringly discussing their next big move.
4. Her smile was conspiringly mischievous, hinting at a plan that was both thrilling and daring.
5. They leaned in closer, conspiringly sharing ideas that could change the course of their project.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conspiringly>