

CONSTABLESHIP

Meaning: Constableness: the office or rank of a constable, especially in a historical or medieval context, often associated with authority and responsibility in law enforcement or court duties.

1. The constableness was a prestigious position in the medieval English court.
2. After years of dedicated service, he finally achieved the rank of constableness.
3. She aspired to the constableness, believing it would allow her to serve her community better.
4. The constableness was often filled by individuals with strong connections to local nobility.
5. His promotion to constableness marked a significant milestone in his law enforcement career.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constableness>