

CONSTERNATION

Meaning: Consternation is a feeling of anxiety or dismay, often at something unexpected.

1. The sudden announcement of the company's closure caused widespread consternation among the employees.
2. She looked at the test results in consternation, unable to comprehend how she had performed so poorly.
3. His consternation was evident when he discovered that the event had been canceled at the last minute.
4. The unexpected changes to the schedule filled the team with consternation as they scrambled to adapt.
5. Consternation swept through the crowd as they realized the concert tickets had all been sold out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consternation>