

CONSTITUTIONIST

Meaning: A constitutionist is an advocate or supporter of the principles and protections established in a constitution, particularly regarding individual rights and the structure of government.

1. The constitutionist argued passionately for the importance of upholding individual rights within the framework of the law.
2. In a debate about governmental power, the constitutionist emphasized the need for checks and balances as outlined in the founding documents.
3. As a devoted constitutionist, she spent years educating others about the principles of democracy and the rule of law.
4. The constitutionist's perspective was instrumental in shaping the amendment proposals during the recent political reform discussions.
5. Many viewed him as a leading constitutionist, advocating for a strict interpretation of the Constitution to preserve its original intent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constitutionist>