

CONSTRAINT

Meaning: Constraint refers to a limitation or restriction that affects freedom, resources, or creativity.

1. The project's success was hindered by budgetary constraints that limited our resources.
2. She felt a constraint in her creativity when forced to follow strict guidelines.
3. Time constraints often lead to rushed decisions that compromise quality.
4. His ability to innovate was stifled by the constraints imposed by the corporate structure.
5. The legal constraints surrounding data privacy have become increasingly stringent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constraint>