

CONSTRAINTIVE

Meaning: Constraintive refers to something that imposes limitations or restrictions, hindering freedom or flexibility in actions or ideas.

1. The constraintive nature of the experiment limited the researchers' ability to explore alternative hypotheses.
2. In this context, the constraintive rules imposed by the organization stifled creativity and innovation.
3. Her constraintive approach to project management often led to tension among team members who preferred more flexibility.
4. The artist found the constraintive parameters of the competition both challenging and inspiring.
5. Despite the constraintive guidelines of the study, the results revealed unexpected insights into the phenomenon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constraintive>