CONSTRUCTIVE

Meaning: Constructive (adjective): serving a useful purpose by providing helpful criticism or suggestions aimed at improvement.

1. The teacher provided constructive feedback that helped the students improve their writing skills.

2. During the meeting, she made several constructive suggestions that enhanced the project proposal.

3. His constructive criticism was appreciated by the team and led to significant improvements.

4. The workshop focused on teaching participants how to give and receive constructive commentary effectively.

5. She maintained a constructive attitude throughout the discussion, which fostered a positive environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constructive