

CONSTRUCTIVELY

Meaning: Constructively: in a manner intended to promote improvement or positive development.

1. She approached the feedback session constructively, aiming to improve team dynamics.
2. The teacher encouraged students to criticize each other's work constructively, fostering a supportive environment.
3. To resolve their differences, they needed to communicate constructively rather than resorting to blame.
4. He listened to her concerns constructively, ensuring that all viewpoints were valued in the discussion.
5. The manager emphasized the importance of addressing issues constructively to maintain a positive workplace culture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/constructively>