

CONSUBSTANTIALISM

Meaning: Consubstantialism is the theological doctrine that asserts the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit possess the same divine essence or substance.

1. Consubstantialism posits that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit share the same essence in Christian theology.
2. In debates about Christology, consubstantialism often contrasts with views that emphasize the distinctiveness of each divine person.
3. The doctrine of consubstantialism is central to the Nicene Creed, affirming the unity of the Trinity.
4. While some theologians embrace consubstantialism, others argue for a more nuanced understanding of divine relationships.
5. The concept of consubstantialism has influenced various philosophical discussions about the nature of existence and identity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consubstantialism>