

CONSULTATIVE

Meaning: Consultative: relating to the act of seeking advice or input from others, often in a collaborative or advisory capacity.

1. The team held a consultative meeting to gather input from all stakeholders.
2. Her role in the project was primarily consultative, offering expertise without direct involvement.
3. The government established a consultative process to encourage public participation in policymaking.
4. During the training session, the instructor adopted a consultative approach to address the trainees' concerns.
5. His consultative style of leadership fosters collaboration and ensures that everyone's voice is heard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consultative>