

CONSULTING

Meaning: Consulting refers to the professional practice of providing expert advice and services to organizations or individuals, often in a specific field such as business or finance.

1. The firm specializes in consulting services for small businesses looking to expand.
2. After several years in corporate finance, she transitioned into consulting to pursue her passion for helping others.
3. The consulting team provided valuable insights that transformed the company's marketing strategy.
4. He sought consulting from industry experts to refine his startup's business model.
5. Their consulting approach focuses on sustainable solutions that benefit both clients and the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consulting>