

CONSUMPTIVELY

Meaning: In a manner that emphasizes or prioritizes consumption, often resulting in the rapid depletion of resources or assets.

1. The resources were allocated consumptively, leading to a rapid depletion of available assets.
2. In a consumptively driven economy, sustainable practices often take a backseat to immediate profits.
3. The organization's consumptively focused approach raised concerns about environmental sustainability.
4. He realized that his consumptively oriented lifestyle was unsustainable in the long run.
5. The project was designed to function consumptively, consuming more energy than it could generate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/consumptively>