

CONTAGIOUS

Meaning: Contagious refers to something that is capable of being spread to others, either in terms of disease transmission or through the influence of emotions or enthusiasm.

1. Her enthusiasm for the project was contagious, inspiring the entire team to put in extra effort.
2. The flu outbreak at the school was particularly contagious, leading to many students falling ill within days.
3. Laughter can be incredibly contagious, often spreading through a room and lifting everyone's spirits.
4. It's important to remember that negative attitudes can be just as contagious as positive ones.
5. The researcher studied how certain emotions can be contagious within social groups, affecting overall morale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contagious>