

CONTAGIOUSLY

Meaning: In a manner that provokes or spreads to others, often referring to emotions or behaviors.

1. She laughed contagiously, making everyone in the room join in her joy.
2. His enthusiasm spread contagiously, inspiring the entire team to work harder.
3. The child's giggles echoed contagiously throughout the park, drawing smiles from strangers.
4. Contagiously optimistic, she brightened up even the dreariest days for her friends.
5. The excitement in the air was contagiously infectious, lifting everyone's spirits instantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contagiously>