

CONTEMPTIBILITY

Meaning: Contemptibility refers to the quality of being deserving of scorn or disdain due to one's actions or behavior.

1. The contemptibility of his actions shocked everyone in the community.
2. She couldn't understand how someone could display such contemptibility in public.
3. His contemptibility became apparent when he mocked those less fortunate than himself.
4. The judge's words highlighted the contemptibility of the crime committed.
5. In her opinion, the contemptibility of the politician's remarks was unforgivable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contemptibility>