

CONTEMPTIBLE

Meaning: Contemptible: deserving of scorn or disdain; worthy of contempt.

1. His contemptible behavior at the meeting shocked everyone present.
2. The villain in the story was portrayed as a contemptible character, lacking any redeeming qualities.
3. She found his contemptible attitude towards others to be completely unacceptable.
4. The critics described the film as contemptible, lacking both originality and substance.
5. Despite his wealth, his contemptible actions left him isolated from his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contemptible>