

CONTEMPTUOUS

Meaning: Contemptuous: expressing disdain or scorn; showing a lack of respect or regard for someone or something.

1. She cast a contemptuous glance at the judge's decision, clearly unimpressed by the ruling.
2. His contemptuous remarks about her abilities only served to fuel her determination to succeed.
3. The contemptuous tone in his voice made it evident that he held no respect for her opinion.
4. Despite his contemptuous attitude, she remained calm and composed throughout the debate.
5. The audience responded with contemptuous laughter at the politician's exaggerated claims.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contemptuous>