

CONTENDENT

Meaning: Contendent: a person who competes or argues in a contest or debate.

1. The contendents in the debate presented a compelling argument that swayed many listeners.
2. As a contendents for the championship title, she trained rigorously every day.
3. Despite being a latecomer to the competition, he quickly established himself as a strong contendents.
4. The contendents's unique perspective challenged traditional views and sparked lively discussions.
5. In the final round, the two contendents showcased their skills, leaving the audience in awe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contendent>