

CONTERMINABLE

Meaning: Conterminable: capable of being aligned or having boundaries that coincide, often used to describe interests or projects that can be integrated or coordinated effectively.

1. The two projects were deemed conterminable, allowing for a more streamlined approach to resource allocation.
2. Their interests in environmental conservation and economic growth were conterminable, leading to a successful partnership.
3. In the realm of mathematics, certain functions are considered conterminable if they can be defined within the same parameters.
4. The timelines for the two studies were conterminable, making it easier to compare the results directly.
5. Philosophers often debate whether the concepts of happiness and fulfillment are truly conterminable in human experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conterminable>