CONTICENT

Meaning: Conticent (adjective): characterized by a tranquil and calming presence, promoting peace and quietude.

1. The conticent nature of the forest provided a perfect backdrop for their quiet retreat.
2. Her conticent demeanor often made her the most trustworthy confidante among her friends.
3. In the midst of chaos, he maintained a conticent composure that impressed everyone around him.
4. The conticent response from the audience suggested that they were deeply engaged in the performance.
5. Despite the overwhelming excitement, she remained conticent, allowing her thoughts to settle before speaking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conticent