

CONTINGENTLY

Meaning: Contingently means dependent on certain conditions or circumstances being met.

1. The funding for the project was contingent upon receiving approval from the board.
2. She agreed to join the team, contingent on her work schedule allowing it.
3. The success of the event was contingent on favorable weather conditions.
4. Their participation in the conference was contingent, as they awaited confirmation from their sponsors.
5. The contract stipulates that payment will be made contingent upon the delivery of goods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contingently>