

CONTOUR

Meaning: Contour refers to the outline or shape of an object or surface, often representing its form or structure in a visual or topographical context.

1. The artist skillfully traced the contour of the model's face with delicate brush strokes.
2. The hiker followed the contour lines on the map to navigate the rugged terrain.
3. Her dress hugged every contour of her body, accentuating her silhouette beautifully.
4. The contour of the landscape changed dramatically as they ascended the mountain trail.
5. To create a more dramatic look, she used makeup to enhance the contour of her cheekbones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contour>