

CONTRACTIVE

Meaning: Contractive: causing or characterized by contraction or a reduction in size or volume.

1. The contractive nature of the material makes it ideal for applications requiring tight seals.
2. During the winter months, the temperatures often have a contractive effect on the rubber components.
3. Yoga can have a contractive impact on the muscles, promoting strength and flexibility at the same time.
4. In economic terms, a contractive policy might be necessary to curb inflation and stabilize the currency.
5. The contractive phases of the heart are crucial for maintaining proper blood circulation throughout the body.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contractive>