

CONTRADICTIVE

Meaning: Contradictive refers to statements or evidence that are in opposition to each other, creating confusion or inconsistency.

1. Her argument was contradictory, leaving everyone confused about her true stance.
2. The contradictory evidence presented by both sides made it difficult for the jury to reach a verdict.
3. He often found himself in contradictory situations, torn between his values and his desires.
4. The report was filled with contradictory statements that undermined its credibility.
5. Despite the contradictory messages from the media, she remained committed to her beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contradictive>