

CONTRADISTINCTION

Meaning: Contradistinction refers to the act of contrasting or distinguishing between two different things or ideas to highlight their differences.

1. In contradistinction to her sister, who preferred urban life, she found solace in the quiet countryside.
2. The artist's use of bold colors was in contradistinction to the muted tones of her earlier works.
3. In contradistinction to the prevailing theories, the new research offers a groundbreaking perspective.
4. His approach to problem-solving stands in contradistinction to the conventional methods widely accepted in the field.
5. The two philosophies are often discussed in contradistinction, highlighting their fundamental differences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contradistinction>