

CONTRASTINGLY

Meaning: CONTRASTINGLY: in a manner that emphasizes differences or oppositions between two or more elements.

1. The warm colors of the painting stood out, contrastingly highlighting the cooler tones in the background.
2. She loved the vibrant city life, while her sister, contrastingly, preferred the tranquility of the countryside.
3. The study revealed that urban schools often face funding issues; contrastingly, rural schools tend to have more resources allocated per student.
4. The two characters in the novel are portrayed contrastingly, one as an optimist and the other as a cynic.
5. He approached the problem with a logical mindset; contrastingly, his partner relied on intuition to guide their decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contrastingly>