

CONTRAVERSION

Meaning: Contraversion refers to a conflict or contradiction arising from differing interpretations or violations of established norms or evidence.

1. The lawyer presented a compelling argument that highlighted the contraversion of the evidence in the case.
2. Her actions led to a contraversion of the unwritten rules governing their friendship.
3. The contraversion of his earlier statements raised doubts about his credibility.
4. In the debate, the contraversion of their opposing viewpoints sparked an intense discussion.
5. The contraversion between the two reports caused confusion among the team members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contraversion>