

CONTUSION

Meaning: A contusion is an injury to body tissue, typically characterized by bruising and swelling, caused by a blow or impact.

1. The athlete suffered a contusion on his thigh after colliding with another player during the game.
2. After the fall, she noticed a painful bruise forming on her arm, indicating a possible contusion.
3. Doctors confirmed that the contusion on his forehead would heal without any serious complications.
4. It's important to ice a contusion to reduce swelling and alleviate pain as quickly as possible.
5. During the physical examination, the doctor pointed out that the contusion was consistent with a minor injury from a blunt force.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/contusion>