CONVENE

Meaning: To convene means to gather or assemble people, especially for a formal meeting or discussion.

1. The committee will convene next week to discuss the proposed changes.
2. After several months of planning, the stakeholders finally decided to convene a meeting.
3. To address the urgent issues, the board must convene immediately.
4. The scientists agreed to convene an international conference on climate change.
5. In times of crisis, it is essential for leaders to convene and share their strategies.
6. The committee decided to convene an emergency meeting to discuss the urgent issues at hand.
7. In order to address the concerns raised by the community, the council will convene next week.
8. Several experts will convene to share their findings at the annual symposium.
9. The team plans to convene regularly to ensure everyone is aligned on the project goals.
10. As the deadline approaches, the project managers will convene to assess progress and allocate resources.
11. The committee will convene next Tuesday to discuss the proposed changes to the policy.
12. After much anticipation, the leaders agreed to convene for peace talks in the neutral territory.
13. To address the urgent issues, the board decided to convene an emergency meeting at the end of the week.
14. Researchers from various universities will convene at the conference to share their latest findings.
15. It is essential for the team to convene regularly to ensure everyone is aligned on the project's goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convene